

CHARGE LONE WOLF OF DRY FORCE CAUSED MAN'S DEATH

PHILADELPHIA, June 12.—The coroner's office today was investigating charges that James L. Asher, "Lone Wolf" of the prohibition enforcement agents, beat Peter Yancauskas, a saloon proprietor, so badly during a recent raid that the man died from the attack.

The charges against Asher were made by Mrs. Adele Yancauskas, the widow, who in a sworn affidavit accused the prohibition agent of kicking her husband in the stomach and hitting him over the head with a bottle.

peter yancauskas 41

Clipped By:

al630

Mon, Aug 15, 2016